ISLAMABAD SEPTEMBER 04, 2018: Ambassadors-designate of Greece and Norway presented their credentials to President Mamnoon Hussain during credentials ceremony at the Aiwan-e-Sadr, Islamabad on Tuesday.

Later, the Ambassadors separately called on the President. Speaking on the occasion, the President said that Pakistan desires to further enhance diplomatic and economic relations with the both countries. The President underscored that the bilateral trade with the two countries is much below its true potential therefore, there is a need to work together to increase its volume. The President emphasized that today's Pakistan provides very conducive environment for great investment and business opportunities and hoped that investors from both Greece and Norway will avail them by investing in diverse areas. He also emphasized that regular exchange of bilateral delegations is essential for strengthening people to people contact and forging strong political and economic linkages.

The President felicitated the newly appointed Ambassadors to Pakistan and hoped that they would work for further strengthening the existing ties of their respective countries with Pakistan.

The envoys who presented their credentials included Ambassador-designate of Greece Dimitris Hatzaopoulos and Ambassador-designate of Norway Kjell-Gunnar Eriksen.
